A HIDDEN
SCOTTISH GEM

---

A UNIQUE

Enjoy a Scottish wedding in one of the most picturesque parts of the Southern Highlands in the heart of Loch Lomond & Trossachs National Park.

The unique setting of The Shore House sits at the head of Loch Goil, with its picture perfect views of the fjord type sea loch, surrounded by the Arrochar Alps, and one of Scotland's most beautiful forestry landscapes.

These incredible panoramic views and wild countryside make The Shore House the perfect location for an unforgettable wedding. The Venue is a bright and airy space, boasting beautiful oak beams and original stone walls. We give you the freedom to create your own style, unrestricted by inflexible layouts or colour schemes. A blank canvas to add all the personal touches and little details to make your wedding unique.

INTIMATE,
Romantic,
UNFORGETTABLE

A dream wedding needs a dream location.

And anyone familiar with Lochgoilhead, knows this is a special place of undisturbed tranquillity and almost surreal natural beauty.

An intimate location, perfect for smaller weddings. And at its heart is our deeply romantic and beautiful old country Manse, The Shore House has retained many of its original features combined with modern Scottish touches.

A Sitting room with burning log fire, individually designed bedrooms and wonderful changing views go to create this unique private venue. The secluded gardens, awe inspiring loch, and stunning scenery right across the glen add the most remarkable highland touches and provide the perfect backdrop for some truly memorable and romantic photographs.
